

ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN PRISON MINISTRY

Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. [Matthew 25: 34-36]

Prison Ministry Training

DATE: Saturday, October 22, 2011

TIME: 11:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

LOCATION: Joy of All Who Sorrow Orthodox Church

This professional training is being offered by the highly successful “Orthodox Christian Prison Ministry (OCPM),” founded in 1991 by Father Duane Pederson, and now centered in Fleetwood, Pennsylvania.

Executive Director Chaplain Patrick Tutella will provide a hands-on training for those who are interested in serving Christ through a viable Orthodox Christian prison ministry.

Training packets and refreshments will be provided. Please RSVP either by emailing Matushka Deborah Tomasi at deborahTomasi@yahoo.com, or by calling 310-849-9451.

OCPM Quick Facts:

- ❖ There are currently over 300 Orthodox catechumens in U.S. prisons being served by OCPM.
- ❖ Many released prisoners, thanks to OCPM, are now leading productive, Christ-centered lives.
- ❖ OCPM has published 8 books, and distributed more than 1 million copies to prisons.
- ❖ Over 2 million icon prayer cards have been printed and distributed to U.S. prisoners.
- ❖ OCPM serves prisoners and their families, recently-released prisoners, and the homeless and needy throughout the country.
- ❖ OCPM sends thousands of personal letters each year to prisoners, offering them spiritual guidance and hope.
